

Maxfield Postpones Sleight Investigation for Two Days

GOVERNORS PLEDGE FUEL AID TO NATION

JUDGE TELLS WHY COURT IS ASKING FOR FULL HEARING

PAT SLEIGHT BACK ON BEAT BUT CITY TAKES NO ACTION.

TO CLEAN SLATE

Court to Hear Attorneys on Thursday—Mrs. Bedell in Texas.

Investigation by Judge H. L. Maxfield into the episode of Aug. 22 when Patrick Sleight lost two teeth and D. E. Worthington publisher of the Beloit Daily News and Thomas Bedell, telegraph editor of the same paper, were fined $50 each on a plea of guilty for drunkenness, was postponed when called at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

Postponement was due to the absence of M. O. Mount who represents the Beloit parties, and the willingness of the court to give the attorney for the Beloit men ample time to consider Judge Maxfield's suggestion that they withdraw their pleas of guilty and subject themselves to a new trial.

Will Hear Attorneys First. By agreement of attorneys, the court postponed the hearing until 2 p. m. Thursday, Aug. 30 with the understanding that a date for the summoning of witnesses will be set at that time.

The Committee of Public Safety of the city council represents the public in the management of the police force. There has been an investigation of whether the chief acted hastily or with full justification. Perhaps he has, but conflicting stories told it would seem that Officer Sleight had no time to get out of the police office before the riot started. Why not hear his story? The committee does not believe any officer should suffer indignity, he the victim of an assault and then be fined without a full investigation by the committee.

And it does not propose to let the matter die until we know where the police department stands and whether officers have been arrested in pursuance of duty. Let the chips fall where they may.

At that time, Mr. Mount will be able to appear at that time. Attorney Otto Oestreich stated. The hearing probably will be next week.

Appearing Tuesday morning were District Attorney Stanley G. Dunwiddie, Attorney Otto Oestreich, representing the Beloit parties; Attorney D. E. Worthington, representing Patrolman Sleight, and Attorney Thomas Nolan, for Harry Bliss, one of the witnesses.

Mr. Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Bedell, and Patrolman Sleight were not in court.

Statistics Provide Reasons. About 30 persons were present when court opened.

Answering the inquiry of Attorney Nolan, Judge Maxfield said the hearing was held under section 3 of the municipal court act of Rock county. This states:

"The judge of said court may in his discretion summon witnesses before him and examine them on oath, for the purpose of determining whether a warrant ought to be issued."

City Offers Help Toward Clean-up of So. Janesville

Aiming at a wholesale clean-up of liquor violations and vice conditions at South Janesville, the city council Monday night pledged the cooperation of Janesville to the Rock county board of supervisors and in turn requested the county authorities to work with the city in eliminating the trouble.

The resolution, introduced by Councilman Mrs. Emma H. Manning, was adopted by a 6-0 vote, the eighth member of the council, Councilman George A. Jacobs, being absent.

"The laws are not being enforced at South Janesville and as a result the city of Janesville itself is suffering in that drunks come away from there and land on the city's streets," declared Mrs. Manning. "It is a matter that will concern us."

"The woman member of the council then offered this resolution, that the city cooperate with the county in every possible way to eliminate the constantly occurring law violations at South Janesville."

"Why not make it stronger?" asked President J. K. Jensen. "Let us form the county board of our willingness to cooperate with them and in turn ask them to work with us."

Mrs. Manning accepted this suggestion as an amendment to her original resolution, and it was passed in that form.

When the question was raised as to what the city could do in the matter, Councilman A. J. Gibbons said: "The chief made the statement before a meeting of the committee on public safety that he had offered the sheriff the services of himself and 14 men for the cleaning up of South Janesville at any time he desired them, but that this offer has never been taken advantage of."

ORGANIZED LOOTING TERRORIZES RURAL SAXONY DISTRICTS

Thirteen, Saxony—The rural districts of Saxony for the past week have been the prey of organized bands of communistic looters who not only have roamed at will but apparently have been carrying on their raids under the supervision of a "general staff," the headquarters of which has not yet been found by the authorities.

Operating in broad daylight, these bands have been "requisitioning" the crops, livestock and cattle of the defenseless farmers.

In numerous instances the marauders, traveling in troops from 100 to 300 men, have seized the property of the farmers and marched off with the stock of the dairies.

PISTOL MELEE IS STAGED IN NEWS OFFICE

Mexico City—The editorial rooms of the newspaper Excelsior were the scene of a brief gun battle late last night between members of the editorial staff and a group of men who were members of the Ku Klux Klan.

Shortly before midnight the police, clad in black robes, forced entrance into the office. The editors, placed in handcuffs, were taken to the police station to receive them. One of the visitors advanced toward Joseph Campos, editor in chief, while the other took a station at the door.

The first of the black-robed figures, the man on guard fired, precipitating a lively struggle.

The assistant of Campos fell with a broken arm and a bullet wound in the stomach. He gave his name as Joaquin Mercedes, a former army officer. The second visitor fled.

VOTE TO SETTLE CULLEN PENALTY BY ARBITRATION

THREE ARBITRATORS TO BE CHOSEN IN $18,000 DISPUTE.

FINDINGS FINAL

Council Approves Offer of $1,000 from Roads for Paying Under Viaduct.

Settlement of the $18,000 high school construction penalty squabble with J. F. Cullen & Son through the medium of a board of arbitration in the same manner as the dispute over extra building costs was disposed of recently, was recommended by the city council at its regular meeting in the city hall Monday night.

The school board was asked to pass a like resolution so that the arbitrators may be chosen to start their task at once.

The dispute has arisen over the failure of the contractors to complete the new high school job on the date specified in the contract for finishing the job.

Approved by Cullen. President J. K. Jensen and Councilman William McCue made the report which proposed putting the matter up to arbitrators, the president explaining that in a recent conference with Mr. Cullen he had agreed to a proposition as follows:

First, that the matter be submitted to a board of arbitration composed of three members, one member to be chosen by the city, one by the contractor and the third by the first judge.

Second, that the findings of this board be accepted as final by both sides.

Third, that the cost of arbitration be paid equally by the city and the contractor.

Other business transacted at Monday night's meeting included a resolution to accept an offer of $1,000 from the city of Janesville toward the cost of paving under the North Franklin street viaduct, awarding the cement work contract for 1923 to A. B. Bennett, 514 Glen street, and release (Continued on page 4)

CASE DELAYED FOR FURTHER INQUIRY

Officers Still Push Attempt to Connect Jensen With Balzer Murder.

Baraboo.—Final disposition of the case of Alvin L. Jensen and John Galloway, Madison painters, held on charges of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Robert Balzer, aged 23, of Baraboo, was delayed pending further investigation by detectives of a possible connection that Jensen may have had with the slaying of Julius, Mary and William Balzer.

The officers are also seeking what they think to be the missing balance of Jensen's board, thought to amount to $1,500.

Jensen's opinion, expressed by detectives that Jensen may have some knowledge of the Balzer killing, although the man emphatically has denied any connection with that crime. All efforts to connect him with the crime have failed.

They expect to continue their investigation.

Hint Mystery "Box of Gold," Excavated, May Be Bergdoll Fortune

Hagerstown, Md.—Despite the complete and emphatic denial made last night by Miss Esther Fowler, sister of Lee Houser, that her brother had found a box containing $100,000 or more, while engaged in repair work about a road near here, the mystery of the "box of gold" framed by her brother, a practical joker, her version of the affair was "doubted in some quarters today."

Fellow laborers who were working near Houser at the time the "find" is said to have been made, are equally emphatic in declaring he did unearth a box. The men also describe Houser as a very quiet, retiring man, and say they have never known him to play a practical joke.

Houser himself was not at home yesterday and could not be found.

PINCHOT MEETING WITH FACTIONS IN PEACE EFFORT.

HEARS TWO SIDES

First Miners, Then Operators Put Forth Arguments for Governor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York.—Governors and governors' representatives of the anthracite consuming states conferring here today, adopted a resolution submitted by Governor Cox of Massachusetts pledging fullest co-operation with Federal Fuel Administrator Wadsworth in his efforts to supply the country with fuel in the event of the threatened suspension of anthracite coal mining September 1.

Adoption of the resolution ended discussion among some of the delegates as to the "leaky" necessity to be put in the resolution setting forth the plans of the conference.

Governor Cox's resolution, one brief paragraph, supplemented a longer one which had been offered by W. B. E. Ainsie, former fuel administrator of Pennsylvania.

GOVERNOR PINCHOT IN FIRST MEDIATION STAGE

Harrisburg, Pa.—Governor Pinchot concluded today the first stage of his mediation in the anthracite wage controversy which threatens to tie up the mines September 1.

In an executive session nearly three hours long he heard the spokesmen of the anthracite operators who explained to him why, to date, they have offered solely arbitration to satisfy the union demands.

Again at the conclusion of the meeting today the governor was silent as to the course of discussion. He did, however, announce that he later in the day would see both sides again and separately. Observers considered it possible that at the latter sessions he would advance his own proposal for compromising the differences.

Terms Kept Secret. The terms of the expected compromise suggestion were kept closely secret.

The union demand for a $2 a day increase for workers paid by the day, and a twenty percent increase for the contract rate for miners on coal, along with the "check-off" system of dues collection, have not been reduced at the session with the governor.

Governor Pinchot, in the intervals between his conferences today, was engaged in consulting the official and unofficial advisers upon the course which he might pursue. He had invited "some men qualified by special experience" to assist him, he said, as the representatives of the federal coal commission lent by Washington authorities.

SHORTHORN C. T. A. MARKS

The Rock County Shorthorn cow testing association started a year ago in December, will be organized as the Shorthorn breeders' not now doing C. T. A. work, will become members during the coming year.

White Lady, owned by Rye Brothers, Avalon, was high cow during the last testing period, making 1033 pounds of milk, testing 4.4 percent or 45.8 pounds of fat. Mistress, a Queenston Duke heifer, owned by Marquardt Brothers, Milton Junction, was second in production. The hero of T. H. Arnold and Sons, Rockville, held high herd honors.

The cow testing association is planning a sale of registered cattle to be a part of the three day program of dual purpose Shorthorn auctions around October 24.

The report of Clayton Fisher, tester, follows:

17-YEAR-OLD COW

IN GREAT RECORD

Equivalent of 7,975 Pounds of Butter in 15 Years for Holstein.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison—A production of 93.9 tons of milk containing 3.10 tons of butterfat, equivalent to 7,975 pounds of butter, is the astonishing record of a 17-year-old Holstein cow in the herd of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture, according to Prof. H. S. Hulce of that institution. This amount of milk would supply one full glass of milk to 375,600 children.

During her 15 years of milk production this cow consumed 67.7 tons of concentrate, 13.38 tons of hay, 5.5 tons of silage, 2.6 tons of roots, 5.5 tons of pasture and a limited amount of pasture forage. Using fair average prices, it is estimated to have produced $24.45 worth of dairy products for every dollar's worth of feed she consumed, thus giving a net return over cost of feed of $23.23.76 in the value of her milk.

She is a large framed cow weighing around 1,400 pounds. Her average yearly production of 8,200 quarts of milk containing 632 pounds butterfat demonstrates that she possesses the ability to convert her feed efficiently into large quantities of milk and butterfat. Her production record also indicates the importance of good breeding, good capacity, good feeding and good care, college officials say.

Bankers Ready to Aid Agriculture

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison—Bankers are in a position to give definite and immediate aid to agriculture in Wisconsin, as well as other states, writers in the Bankers' Journal, a journal issued by the agricultural committee of the American Bankers' association, point out.

They propose the following three ways for extending aid:

For immediate relief, such as financial aid in marketing a crop or in financing co-operative purchases of wholesale lots of fertilizers, or in the introduction of improved livestock and better strains of farm crops.

For immediate effect in improving conditions or for gradual development of relief, such as for instance, as promoting better farm and associated boys and girls club work, short courses in agricultural instruction, or in obtaining proper financial and moral support for a thoroughly trained and efficient county agent, or home economics agent, who will be able to obtain proper co-operative effort in community enterprises, develop local leaders, counsel wisely with them in planning the most intelligent means of working for community betterment.

For long-time development program, that will make many agricultural ill by developing a generation of young men and women who are truly educated for farm life.

URGE MODIFYING OF SHIP POLICY

New Suggestions Stand Good Show of Adoption in Washington.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE Copyright, 1923, by Janesville Daily Gazette.

Washington—Efforts to change President Harding's shipping policy have not abated. The American Shipping Owners' Association and the United States Ship Operators' association will appeal to the shipping board for a continuation, with some modification, of the present method of operating government ships through managing agents.

The new suggestions involve a much more efficient system of operating government ships.

Through agents but not guarantee the government's losses with insuring more or less the profits of the operators. There is likelihood of the acceptance of the plan, as the shipping board has been in the presence of Mr. Harding last June to do away with the managing agent method and substitute a system of subsidiary companies. The latter scheme is being held in abeyance out of courtesy to President Coolidge, who has expressed a desire to inform himself about it. The board's plan is substantially as follows:

New Corporations Instead of operating 350 ships as at present under the emergency fleet corporation, there would be organized instead from 12 to 18 corporations which would be owned in entirety by the United States government.

Each subsidiary company in private hands operates more than 50 ships and the purpose of the division into subsidiary units is to enable the government to build up a fleet of operation. Several of the established lines would be grouped in each company. The experts estimate that each subsidiary company with an organization would be able to economize for the government and avoid the duplication and needless accounting which one organization encounters in auditing the various lines operated by the emergency fleet corporation.

At present every line, as for example the United States line, is operated by a managing agent, who is not a commission on gross revenue irrespective of whether any profit is made for the government. The good will of the line belongs to the private individual. When the time comes to end government operation the government would have only its ships.

What Board Plans The subsidiary corporations exactly as they would have to be organized if private capital were to enter the shipping business and the government would finance the enterprises and would get all the profits if there are any. The object of the plan is to cut down losses and make the subsidiary companies attractive to prospective private purchasers.

In other words, if there is any good will in the established shipping lines, the government would get it. The plan is to put the government in a position to get the government investment and should bring a return in cash just as much as the actual property. That would be the case in any other line of business or any other enterprise.

Object to Present Plan The most intense pressure is being exerted to prevent the shipping board from putting into operation the plan it has already decided upon. The president is believed to have recognized this and to have come to the conclusion that when the board's plan goes into operation it shall have the wholehearted support of the administration. An opinion has been asked from the attorney general as to the legality of the plan. The general counsel of the shipping board and prominent lawyers who have been consulted say there is no doubt of the legality. In fact it is said the new scheme is far more in line with the merchant marine act of 1920 than the managing agent system. If the board's plan is overthrown, it may be as a result of legal obstacles put in its path, but the general belief is that the president Coolidge wants the plan.

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM WOMAN 30 YEARS HIS JUNIOR

Married to a woman 30 years his junior, William Humphrey, 50, Monday applied for a divorce in circuit court from his wife, Cora, 20. They have been married only three years.

They were married in Rockford in July, 1920, and lived together up to the time of Mrs. Humphrey's desertion in April, 1922.

The plaintiff accuses Mrs. Humphrey of cruelty and infidelity. Upon numerous occasions, it is claimed, she would take trips with strange men, refusing to tell her husband the names of the men. Humphrey also claims his wife used abusive language and upon divers occasions hurled loathsome epithets at him, besides accusing him of associating with other women.

DOCTOR REJOICES IN RECOVERY OF DOG Dr. W. H. Meyer, Chicago, a physician connected with the police department of that city, is rejoicing in the recovery of his six months' old puppy which jumped out of a baggage car in Janesville a week ago while being shipped from Chicago to McFarland. The dog, while not a thoroughbred, was worth several dollars on the dog market, is valued at several times that figure by the Chicago man, particularly since he lost him.

Dr. Meyer and the family became greatly attached to "Quercus" in the four months they owned her and did everything possible to locate her. Trips from McFarland to Janesville and telephone calls between the two places were frequent, and money was spent for advertising, resulting

"PICK AND SHOVEL" ALIENS HELD NEED

Glancy Tells Rotary Club
"Mucker Labor" Should be Welcomed.

Limited immigration, not for the making of future citizens but for "pick and shovel" work, is the idea of A. E. Glancy of the General Motors corporation, Janesville. Speaking before the local Rotary club at lunch on at the Grand hotel Tuesday, Mr. Glancy said his views have been developed through practical experience. "Pick and shovel" men, he said, are essential, because the average run of American will not get down to that sort of work. He pointed out that the immigrants now arriving are of the type wanted, "not the temperamental races that sell bananas."

Plodders Are Wanted
The immigrants coming into the United States, he said, are of the "pick and shovel" type, and the second generation lose all taste for that work and even the younger of the immigrants now arriving graduate into the type wanted. "I have tried persuasion to make Americans do that sort of work," he said, "but it has failed."

He told several instances where he had foreigners who were shiftless and poor workmen, who were changed to good workers and better satisfied individuals through selling them automobiles on long payment plans. "They are getting more out of life, though they are not saving, but spending," he said, "and I believe in living much more than a long, quiet ride to Oak Hill, Ill."

Several delegates to the Annual Order of Lutheran convention here were present. The Rev. Patrick A. Walsh, state chaplain, A. O. H., and the Rev. Peter Rivers, Richmond, Wis., and the Rev. Bernard Doyle, Benton, and the Rev. Oswald Ulrich, Janesville, other guests. The Rev. W. T. Clark, president of the Lions' Den, and W. W. Brown, principal of Janesville high school.

Tuesday was 62 degrees and at noon it was 66.

DOLLAR DAY IS BARGAIN PARADISE

Stores Slash Prices in Preparation for Thursday's Shopping
Rush.

Janesville's 25th semi-annual Dollar Day will be held on Thursday. For days, merchants of the city have been planning to make it the best of all from the standpoint of the person who stands at the front of the counter. Entire stocks of goods have been sold over to pick out bargains that will be wholly to the advantage of the customer.

Every store department will have special inducements. Articles for wear, for the home, for gifts, for usefulness, for decoration—for every purpose—will be on sale at prices made to be better than the every day business.

Official Dollar Day stores will be designated by special signs placed in their windows and donated by the Brandenburg Printing company. Watch for these placards.

The Gazette publishes Tuesday night a special 16-page Dollar Day advertising section, a catalog of bargains for Thursday. Attention is also called to the Dollar Day advertisement in another column, an official list of the merchants co-operating.

County to Build $25,000 Boiler Room at Asylum

With an idea of rushing to completion before winter a new boiler house at the Rock county poor farm and insane asylum, the building committee of the county board met Tuesday afternoon with Engineer Dillon of Madison.

The desired improvements are part of those authorized by the county board more than a year ago. It is planned to build a new one-story boiler room, probably about 50 feet square with sunken coal bin adjoining. It is planned to install new boilers to replace the ones which have been in service since 1913.

It is estimated the work will cost about $20,000 or $25,000.

Action of Immell Is Awaited Here

Further steps by the soldiers' memorial committee is held up pending word from Ralph Immell, adjutant general, with whom Capt. Felix Grimshaw of the Tank Corps conferred at camp several weeks ago on the feasibility of the plan suggested, which was to convert the old high school into a memorial building. Captain Grimshaw said Tuesday that the adjutant had advised him that he would come to Janesville and see one of his officers to confer with the local committee. Thus far no one from Madison has been here and the committee cannot proceed until it learns the attitude of the state.

CITY HALL BOILER RUNS IN AUGUST SETTING NEW MARK

For the first time since its erection, the city hall has its heating apparatus in operation in August. Junior James Gillespie started up the big boiler early Tuesday and maintained a small pressure of steam throughout the morning. The dampness following Monday's continued rain made the cool weather of Tuesday a pleasant surprise.

"No one complained that they wanted heat but I thought it would make it a little more comfortable," said those in the various offices," said Mr. Gillespie.

"This is the first time to my knowledge that there has ever been a fire in the city hall in August. The earliest I can remember of ever having started one is Sept. 18. I have had to run the boiler in the spring as late as June 10, however."

Speed Officer Hurt in "Spill"

Motorcycle Patrolman George Porter of the police department was able to be out Tuesday, following an accident Sunday on West Milwaukee street when his motorcycle tipped over after an automobile had cut in ahead of him too closely. He suffered a cut over his right eye and bruises on his back and knees, although this has not been determined.

If I Owned a Garage—
LOTS and lots of people want to rent automobiles for the day or afternoon. Many more want to buy new or sec-garage I wouldn't wait for these people to come to me and tell me of their wants. I would wait for my competitor to go to them. I'd go to them myself.

I'd tell them about the fine boys I had, about the various cars I had for rent, about the accessories and tires I had for sale. I'd let these people know through the Want Ads of the Janesville Gazette that I could give them better service and bet-skimp on space either, but would list what I had to offer in State Fairs, Nasty Shows and Liceuses.

The more we read of other fairs held in other sections of the state the more we may feel that the fair at Janesville and those others in this immediate neighborhood were clean and attractive in comparison with what has been put on in some localities. It would seem that the Dane county fair was about the worst so far and being within the shadow, or shall we say sunlight, of the capitol, stands out more emphatically than the rest. In connection with this, the Badger Banner of Black River Falls calls attention to the failure of the authorities to enforce the license laws of the state. The Banner says:

On our own county fair grounds last fall there were three Greek hawkers whose homes were in Chicago. They had been attending fairs within the state ever since the middle of August and they were still going on. They were selling a line of grey-suits where there was a profit of at least 200 per cent. The year before one man selling a little coil of solder worth less than a dime, for a quarter, took in $140 in two days. Another man with a line of second grade aluminum ware took in nearly $200 in one day, closed up his booth and quit. Such stories can be repeated indefinitely. Will there be an injustice, will the fairs of Wisconsin be seriously crippled for the sake of enforcing the laws of the state which are that such men may so traffic within the state for one year upon the payment of a license fee of twenty dollars?

That is one phase of fairs. The local merchant gets no protection and he pays taxes, participates in all the activities of the community, while the itinerant salesman escapes all responsibilities except and save for the few paltry dollars he may pay the fair boards for bliking the public.

There is another phase. That is the miserable shows, morally debasing, stupidly vulgar and interesting only to the prurient and the unsophisticated who suddenly discover that the hidden and tabooed dirt and filth may be seen at so much a ticket by virtue of the connivance of, and partnership with, some perfectly good and saintly directors of a fair who would hesitate to publicly look at such shows themselves. The state fair, heretofore noted for a mess of fakery and vile shows along the midway, has canned the whole works this year. Nothing like a carnival will be there, so we are told. But the protests against the Dane county fair exhibits would appear to indicate that no attempt was made to curb the show indecencies or check the fakery, whether beggars or gamblers.

If the state exercised a little more care in managing fairs and would keep the state money from a few of them on an occasion or two, we might have a reform that would be worth while. Otherwise the people are not at all protected and the fair becomes only an open road where all may be robbed with the fair management as accessories.

The early frost has hit the straw hat the hardest blow of all.

The Mexican Treaty.

The agreement between the United States and Mexico, which has been signed, will take the ratification of the senate to put it into final effect. The conference just closed, was held to settle several questions over which there had been wide divergence between Mexico, under Obregon, and the United States. Oil lands confiscated by Mexico will be restored to American owners and large land holdings also taken and divided will be returned with some concessions by America for the future. There is every belief that the Obregon government will be able to carry out the stipulations of the treaty and that the period of general revolution has passed in Mexico. We have a great market here for the raw materials of Mexico and that republic would be a better customer for our manufactured products if a stable government, over a period of years, should finally be established and recognized. We are now buying from Mexico more than that country receives from us. There has been about the same lack of money with which to make purchases as we find in Europe. But Mexico can make an exchange when America is soundly established as a neighbor and political peace and commercial comity have been fully restored. The report of the commissioners will soon be in, the president's hands and pending the action of the senate he may accept the document as satisfactory.

Perhaps the president reappointed Doc Sawyer so that Secretary Hughes would have some one in the administration to keep his whiskers company.

Old Jap to Fiddle for Ever.

Old Jap Bisbee, who has been fiddlin' for the last 70 years, and Jap is 51 now, is going to secure immortality just as far as canned music can give it to him. Jap has been living at Paris, Michigan, for ever since the folks came there back in the pioneer days and settled with a name reminiscent of cafes, art, music and dancing. When Thomas A. Edison and Henry Ford went through Paris on an auto trip they were steered against Jap who got out his old fiddle and played the kind of stringed music that the whole lick and caboodle of us can right readily understand and honestly say we like. It isn't dress suit music but the kind that you can appreciate when

PREVENTING HAY FEVER

By FREDERICK J. HASKIN

Washington.—Have you such symptoms as frequent sneezing, blocking of the nostrils due to the swollen mucous membrane, watery discharge of the nose, slight elevation of temperature, followed by a tendency to subnormal temperature? Are you full of tears? Is there an itching of the inner angle of your eye and of the roof of your mouth in the region of the soft palate? Do you find it difficult to breathe through your nose when you are lying down, and does breathing become easier when you are exercising?

Do you have that feeling of general depression that comes from subnormal temperature and difficulty in breathing? Are your mouth and throat almost constantly dry?

Having answered all of these questions—or most of them—in the affirmative, the doctor will inform you readily enough, "Yes, you have it, without a doubt!"

"It is in this instance, is of course, hay fever. This is the height of the season for that pestilential ailment and, unless you are so fortunate as to be able to make a quick journey to a more salubrious clime, or as to have been immunized by the inoculation treatment, about all you can do is to lay in a plentiful supply of handkerchiefs and find such consolation as you can in the thought that you have plenty of company in your misery."

There are at least a million—probably two million—hay fever victims in the United States. Accurate statistics are not available, but the American Hay-Fever Prevention association estimates that from 1 to 2 per cent of the entire population of the country suffer from hay fever at some time during the year. Included in the estimate is an indeterminate number of adults and children who never learn what is really the matter with them, but think they are suffering from bad colds. The question of susceptibility is a complicated subject, but in this respect does not differ materially from susceptibility in other diseases. It is well known, for instance, that while many persons are extremely sensitive to pollen, others can handle it with impunity. In diptheria, also, it is found that some persons, known as "carriers," actually have the germs of the disease in their throats without being infected thereby.

So you may be immune to hay fever and regard it as a good deal of a joke when your friends complain of it. However, your immunity may be only apparent, the freedom from attack being due to insufficient exposure, and one of these days you may visit a place where the air is full of hay-fever pollen. Thereafter you will be less likely to treat the subject as a joke.

Eighty-five per cent of the cases of hay fever are caused by the pollen of the different kinds of rag-weed. That is why there are more victims in late summer and early fall. Various grasses, including even timothy, will cause the disease, and in addition to ragweeds the chief offenders are the chenopods and the wormweeds.

Now it is extremely interesting to note—and important as well—that every victim has his own particular kind of pollen to which he is susceptible and will not react to any of the other kinds. In individual sufferer is usually subject to the malign influence of a single botanical group. That gives one a sort of exclusive feeling.

But the important feature connected with this phase of the hay fever problem is that you must first discover your own brand of poisonous pollen before you can be treated according to modern methods and probably rendered permanently immune, or partially so. The diagnostic measure consists in vaccination with extracts of the pollen of various weeds or plants to determine which one is the noxious agent in your particular case.

The inoculation test, made with a hypodermic needle or by scratching the skin and rubbing in the pollen, having shown the type of protein to which you are unduly sensitive, you are ready for treatment. This consists in giving you repeated inoculations of the same protein in graduated doses.

This is in principle similar to the method of treatment whereby persons are made immune to typhoid fever and other bacterial maladies. The human organism is stimulated to develop protective agents within the blood stream, or it may be said to become desensitized. At any rate, after a sufficient number of treatments the hay fever victim frequently ceases to be susceptible to the toxic influence of the pollen that has made his life a burden every summer or fall.

By way of caution it should be stated that this immunization method of treatment is a comparatively recent development and that it should be undertaken only by a thoroughly competent physician.

However, probably the best cure for hay fever is a preventive measure that anybody and everybody can apply without danger or the possibility of any complications. This is the simple process of destroying the noxious weeds before they reach the flowering stage. If there are no weeds there will be no pollen-infested atmosphere and no hay fever. And if the weeds are cut or otherwise destroyed before pollination there will be no seeds to sprout again another season.

Many states and municipalities have laws or ordinances providing for the destruction of weeds and the Hay-Fever Prevention association is constantly agitating for additional legislation along that line. Unfortunately many of the state laws that were enacted some years ago do not specify the pernicious rag weed in the list of weeds that are to be destroyed and it has been found necessary to seek amendments to those statutes if they are to benefit the hay-feverites.

But experiments have demonstrated that concerted community action can accomplish much toward making any given section practically free from the hay fever menace. In 1915 such an experiment was tried in and about New Orleans with splendid results.

Golden rod was long blamed as one of the most fruitful sources of hay fever, but it has been found that this was a mistake. The pollen of golden rod, and of daisies, dandelions and sunflowers, as well, will produce the symptoms if directly inhaled, but at a little distance such plants are harmless.

You have on a pair of overalls, the kitchen gingham or the best tops you possess. Jap plays real music—old compositions, the things that live like great monuments and mountains and valleys and other gigantic artificial works and productions of Nature in her various moods and tones. "My tunes date back a hundred years," says Jap proudly. And that is why he is going east and play into the records all those old and strange pieces at the invitation of Thomas Edison. It will be a great day for Jap and a great day also for several thousand homes where the jazz and the syncopated nonsense has driven good music into oblivion or placed it in cold storage. We need a few more Jap Bisbees.

JUST FOLKS

REST.

Oh, it is sweet to romp in play
And from life's sorrows steal a day.
This good to lay the burden down
And cease to struggle for renown,
But oh, my boy, before your fun
Your first must have your duty done.

'Tis sweet to rest and sweet to dream
Upon the banks of yonder stream;
'Tis good beneath a tree to lie
And build your castles in the sky,
But bitterly you'll rue the day
If you have shirked your task to play.

You cannot rest with easy mind
If care must follow on behind;
You cannot play with conscience clear
If want or shame is standing near
By sorrow many men have learned
The right to pleasure must be earned.

'Tis sweet to play, but sweeter far
Those hours of ease and pleasure are
Which follow toil. The weary best
Enjoy their days of peace and rest,
And he is never wholly gay
Who has not earned the right to play.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

By ROY K. MOULTON.

Whenever I go to a show, I'd like right here to state, I most admire and never tire of folks who come in late. They're always late and smash you that as to their seats they speak. They tread your toes and they break your knees. They move so slow you miss the show right in the choicest place. They screen your view and walk on you and poke you in the fact. They grumble on, comment upon your nerve and glare right straight at you, and they're all the time saying there. When six or eight of them are late, and come all in a bunch and mussy your hair, your necktie tear and jam you in your lunch, you miss an act, and that's a fact, and ere they're through your way, as if to test your patience, they stand right in your lap. They break your leg and then beg your pardon not a bit, as they should do, but growl that you had been 'he cause of it. Before they seat their crowd complete they stand up for while till all may view their clothing and comment on their choice of a joke. If these swell folks should find the party quite closed right on time in heaven's clime when they arrive there late.

Who's Who Today

FREDERICK G. GUEST.

Frederick G. Guest, minister in charge of the British air department when David Lloyd George was premier and who is the only minister of the British crown to own an estate in the United States, has come to this country for a visit.

His wife is with him. She is the former Amy Phipps, the daughter of Henry Phipps of New York.

A younger brother of Lord Wimborne, Major Freddie Guest has had a somewhat eventful career. He has been everywhere.

Very rich, through his multi-millionaire father, despite his having been younger son, he went out to South Africa, some years before the Boer war and was suspiciously near to Johannesburg at the time of the Jameson raid. Afterward he joined Kitchener and as an officer of the camel corps, took part in the reconquest of the Sudan and in the battle and capture of Khartoum.

He was a captain of the first life guards in the Boer war and also did some soldiering out in India.

He went to France on the outbreak of the great war on the staff of Lord French, winning the distinguished service order, the legion of honor and the commandery of the order of the British empire.

After a brief spell at home, he joined Gen. Jan Smuts in the arduous East Africa campaign which ended in the conquest of all Germany's vast territory in that portion of the dark continent.

LOOKING BACKWARD

FORTY YEARS AGO

Aug. 28, 1883.—Many tobacco fields were entirely destroyed by the terrific hail storm which struck the county last night. The estimated damage is $150,000.—Forty ladies and gentlemen of the city chartered the river steamer "City of Nowhere" yesterday and started on a trip up the river. They were "killed" by the rain however, and spent the day at Rock River house.

Bates, his attorney, and claims that he owns certain streets by right of some old deeds which he possesses. Some of the streets are sections of First and Second streets in the Third ward, and Prospect avenue.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Aug. 28, 1903.—Hohenadel Canning factory has started its rush season and is now busy with the corn crop. Outlook is good for one of the best crops in years.—Several warders are aroused over the possibility of submitting to an imposition in being forced to have their curbs built closer to their houses in order to make the street the desired width.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Noted Physician and Author

VACATION TYPHOID

Most of the typhoid fever nowadays is imported from summer resorts. The vacationist brings the infection back with him and comes down with the fever, or perhaps two or three weeks after his return.

Formerly the old caskin bucket that hangs in the well was suspected in these early cases. And there are many few caskin buckets to be found about wells in the country now; you drink out of your hat or in an old tomato can or take your life in your hands and approach the back door and the water does it.

Probably the real source of infection in these cases of vacation typhoid is a carrier, nine times out of 10. Flies swim about the country's water and flies convey germs on their feet from their favorite resorts to the food. But at that, human carriers are even more prolific sources of infection.

Either they carry a long string of typhoid fever, or maybe it is called "gastric" or "bilious" or "malaria" or "rheumatic," but anyway he finally gets about, feels the need of country air, takes a trip to the country and strikes a job in the most lively place, a summer resort, where help has to be hired as it comes. The man milks cows, or makes ice cream, or waits on table, or otherwise handles food. He is a carrier of typhoid germs and does not know it. His hands convey the germs to food. Most of these who eat the food are unharmed. But they carry the germs in their system, or else they possess natural or acquired immunity. But a certain number of the boarders, and especially in the summer months, ought to protect himself by being immunized by his doctor. Immunization is rather easier and less disturbing than vaccination against smallpox, and it consists of a series of three painless hypodermic injections of administered once a week. The very worst effect noted is a slight headache and general malaise for a day after the first injection. In about one dose of each five individuals is immunized. The immunity thus acquired is effective for a period of at least three years. It is not absolute, but sufficient to enable one to resist any dose of typhoid germs likely to be encountered, but unquestionably if one were exposed to enormous infection—massive doses of typhoid germs over a period of many days, the resistance would finally be overcome and a mild attack of fever developed. But when typhoid infection does occur in an immunized person, the attack is always mild.

If the drinking water at a camp is doubtful, the addition of pure chlorinated lime, as much as you can take up on a dime, to each five gallons, does not injure the taste but disposes of any typhoid germs there may be present.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Pressure and Backache.

The doctor tells me I have renal disease. Does this cause backache? Is it serious? What will cure it?—H. N. Answer.—Pressure is a linear ulcer or crack in the junction between skin and muscles underneath. It causes great pain, often imagined to be piles. Blood streaks show on the garments. Obstinate constipation is present—from the inhibition of fear. Backache is usually abdominal pain. If the application of heat, or the use of a general anesthetic is necessary.

It is there and the common notion that it will cure barber's itch or ringworm. C. B. Answer.—The cure, ringworm of the body, but it is not a good remedy for ringworm of the head.

Q. Are sapphires and rubies derived from aluminum? L. H. A. They are corundum, which is aluminum oxide, the hardest mineral except the diamond. It is called according to its color, sapphire (blue); true or Oriental, ruby (red); Oriental amethyst (purple); Oriental emerald (green); Oriental topaz (yellow); white sapphire (colorless). Adamantine spar is smoky-brown, sometimes translucent. Emery is very dark colored and contains magnetite.

Q. How is cotton mercerized? A. M. The cotton is treated with a solution of caustic alkali, and then stretched while being washed with hot water. The process which gives the fabric a brilliant luster was introduced by John Mercer, an English calico printer, in 1844.

Q. What makes the kettle sing? C. L. J. When the water in the kettle boils the kettle is filled with steam which attempts to escape. The spout is a comparatively small opening, and the pressure of the steam becomes great enough to cause the singing or whistling sound as it rushes through it.

Q. What does the Indian name "Wagon" mean? J. J. H. The name "Wagon" means "first-born daughter."

Q. How are mock olives made? G. G. W. A. Mock olives may be made for home use from unripe plums. The plums, when just beginning to ripen, but still green, should be pickled in a 45 degree brine (one pound salt and one gallon of water). The brine should be poured, but never the fruit, into a jar, and allowed to stand for 36 hours. It should then be poured off. Place the fruit in a new brine and boil for one minute. Drain the plums, put jars, cover with hot brine. Process and seal, put jars for 30 minutes at 212 degrees Fahrenheit. The department of agriculture says that if it is possible thermometer should be used to test the water in canning or preserving, since a more uniform product is secured.

Q. Was Booker T. Washington a full-blooded negro? F. M. W. A. Booker T. Washington was the son of a mulatto slave and a white man, which made him a quadroon. He was born near Haleford, Franklin county, Virginia.

DENY TURKS FIRED ON AMERICAN BOAT

Athens.—The American high commission here today denied the recent report from Athens that Turkish soldiers had fired on an American motor boat at Gallipoli, killing a man and wounding a woman.

An Athens dispatch last Saturday, quoting a telegram from the island of Imbros, said a motor boat, flying the American flag and carrying 10 refugees, apparently had left Maitos, on the Gallipoli peninsula for Kivaltas, Greek coast, when the engine failed and the craft drifted toward the town of Gallipoli, where it was fired upon.

Rockford TOT IS KILLED BY AUTO

Rockford.—Harland Johnson, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, was run over by an automobile driven by Charles J. Lundberg, secretary-treasurer of the Co-operative Furniture company. The accident occurred a half a block from the child's home, shortly after noon Monday. Lundberg went over the body of the child. He was going 10 miles an hour when the child died in front of his car.

Paris.—The engagement of Allister McCormick of Chicago to Miss Joan Stevens of London soon will be announced, according to a dispatch from LeTouquet to the Herald.

The wedding, it is said, will probably take place in Paris early in October.

The engagement of Allister McCormick to Miss Mary Landon Baker of Chicago in 1921 and the frequent postponement of the wedding attracted wide attention from the newspapers last year. On Miss Baker's return from England last February, she announced that she was no longer engaged to Mr. McCormick.

TOMB GUARDS ADOPT PERSISTENT PUP

Marion, O.—A small dog, which took up a position near the casket of President Harding during the funeral services, only to be chased away by soldiers the next day after it had lain at the foot of the casket all night, returned again to the tomb today and has been adopted by the soldiers on guard there. At the time of the funeral Mrs. Harding made a request that the dog be not molested and it was left alone. But the next day the soldiers drove it away. When they learned it had been Mrs. Harding's request, they made a fruitless search. But Monday the dog returned and was adopted.

The Riddle of the Spinning Wheel

By M. E. and T. W. HANSHEW

Being an Exploit in the Career of Hamilton Cleek, Detective
Copyright 1922, by Doubleday, Page & Co., and published by arrangement with McClure Newspaper Syndicate of New York City.

"Thank you," he said simply, "Hello! Here's Mr. Narkom. Yes, let's have a look at the higher, men, before you carry him off to the lock-up. I'm interested to know what a looks like beneath that mask of his. Just to get a line on his features, you know."

Speaking, he went up to the group of constables and, flashing out his torch, sent its spotlight upon the man's scowling face.

And it was just as he did this that Dollops let out a yell of amazement and stared at him—mouth open, eyes wide.

"Gawdime! and pink sossidges!" he exclaimed, whirling about upon his heels in astonishment. "If this here Cleek ain't a dandy limit! Why, that's ole Dirty Dick the Dugger himself!"

"And this," said Cleek, as he glanced down at the constable's face, "is the missing will, or Am Dutchman! Quillo a little bit of a Dutchman! Quillo a little bit of a Dutchman! I must say! Who says anything about killing two birds with one stone? Well, I'm going along with you to the lock-up, but in the morning, to be more literal, but I'm going to have a conversation with your prisoner which is going to elucidate many things for me. Mr. Narkom, I should advise you to go back to bed and take a rest. Tomorrow is likely to be a heavy day."

Then, smiling, but still a little furtive, he slipped into the back of the car, and the proper elucidation of the riddle, at last.

CHAPTER XXVI
The End in Sight
Cleek spent an hour in the "lock-up" with the man they had captured, and had what he scathingly called a proper heart-to-heart talk with him, coming away with the contemptuous feeling in his heart which all clean men must find there upon discovering a fellow creature who saves his own skin if possible, is willing to split upon a pal.

He wended his way toward the Inn of the Three Fishers, with Dollops beside him, and the proper elucidation of the riddle, at last.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON.
Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please tell me how I can reduce my hips. I am slender except my hips are very large. If you say exercise, what kind?

Lie on the back, bring the knees to the chest; clasp the ends of a wand or broomstick, one end in each hand, and rest the feet upon the ankles so grasped. Breathe the knees close to the chest. Stretch the left leg as nearly perpendicular as you can upward above the waist; reach with the toes, stretch the muscles of the limb as far as possible, relax and bring back to position of the foot on the stick. While stretching the left leg keep the right foot on the stick. Stretch 10 times with the right leg and 10 times with the left leg. This will reduce the hips and abdomen. You may not be able to touch the knees to the chest at first, but grasp the stick in both hands, but persist until you can do so.

You Who Shop Here Have Our Pledge

There is no occasion to haggle here over price and quality. We have but one price—that fixed upon a fair margin of profit over the producer's price to us—and that price alone is for all alike. There is no deviation from that price.
Your dollar will go as far as your neighbor's here—no farther.
Only goods of strictly reliable quality are presented. "Seconds," "job lots," "bankrupt stocks" and other undesirable goods are not permitted in this Store.
You have our pledge of satisfaction. Should anything bought here prove differently than represented we cheerfully and unhesitatingly make it right.

Are Always the Lowest-In-Town!

We do not charge you one price for our merchandise today and then tomorrow, give your neighbor a lower price in a so-called "sale." You and your neighbors are given the same just, fair treatment every day. Nor do we order quality taken out of our goods in order to sell them at a lower price. Reliable quality at lowest consistent prices always. It's satisfaction, not noise, that makes shopping here attractive.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30th

A festival of extra value-giving, when the dollar stretches its utmost, bringing opportunities for saving that are startling. Dollar Day is Thursday, but it really started months ago when we commenced preparing for it. Only twice a year we announce such an event, and for each one we prepare on a larger scale to take care of the increased patronage. This sale is of such magnitude that we feel safe in saying there isn't a woman in Janesville or Southern Wisconsin that can attend it without becoming an enthusiastic buyer. Look over the items. Make up your list of needs and come here the first thing the morning of the sale to fill it. Store Opens Thursday Morning at 8:30 Sharp.
